

Shady Grove Farms

We are a small local farm with a passion for raising things in an all natural way. We believe our animals should be in an environment in which they are meant to be. We offer heritage breed pork - whole, half, live, hog roast, individual cuts, chicken - whole, cut, eggs, rabbit - whole. We offer fresh turkeys for the Thanksgiving and Christmas holidays. We do not use antibiotics, hormones, or steroids with any of our animals. We raise, on average, 30 different crops ranging from tomatoes, cucumber, eggplant, to peppers, squash, pumpkins including a large variety of heirloom vegetables. We do not use pesticides on our produce, we will find a natural way for treatment. This year we will be focusing on a lot of greens and lettuce mixes. We offer a large range of herbs -potted, cut and dried. We have 2 greenhouses in which we use for seedlings and early planting so we can supply fresh quality produce late spring

What is a CSA?

CSA stands for Community Supported Agriculture which we get ready for the produce season there is an upfront cost of your CSA share will help with those expenses. harvesting you will receive the rewards of the produce week for a 18 week period. Keeping in mind that by that I mean the risks of the weather, crops not growing or will always get the pick of the produce before the market put forth our best effort to achieve the best crops possible. Join us in growing our CSA membership and enjoy eating fresh produce all season long.

means you, as a consumer, buy into a part of our farm. As cost of purchasing seeds, equipment, supplies, etc. The Then throughout the season as we are plowing, planting, without the work by receiving a box of fresh produce each purchasing a share you also take in the risk of farming. By being harvestable. If that does occur, our CSA members customers. You can be sure that, Harold and I, will always

Each week in the produce box you will receive a variety of up to 15-20 items. The box is geared towards a family of 2-4 people. Depending on how many vegetables your family eats this should be a weeks' worth of produce, or at least a large part of. We also offer an egg share in which you can add to your weekly box. By purchasing an egg share options that guarantees your eggs each week.
